

1 Get Fitted Near Home

Find a fitting location near you or visit a local formalwear specialist or tailor to get measured. If you have trouble finding a location, visit our website and navigate to the Groomsmen Fittings tab under the Wedding tab on our homepage. There, you will be able to find possible fitting location near you.

2 Submit Measurements Online

Submit your professional measurements and payment securely online to the store coordinating your event. If you have trouble online, you are also able to call or email our stores. Visit our website www.skeffingtons.com for store information. When submitting your measurements, a $40 down payment will be required on all rental orders and full payment must be made on any purchase items.

3 Pick Up & Return Rental

Try on and pick up your tuxedo at the location coordinating your event. Rentals are typically guaranteed two days before the event for customers to try- on and pick up. Please arrive 24 hours before your event to allow our staff to properly serve you and make any necessary adjustments. After celebrating in style, just return all garments to your nearest Skeffington's location. You are also welcome to send your rental with someone else if you are unable to return.

A valid I.D. is required at the time of pick up. No checks will be accepted as final payment.*
